

Dear [REDACTED]

In response to your letter dated 25 March 2020 I would like to inform you as follows. Airbnb Ireland UC ("Airbnb") cannot accommodate the requests or demands made in your letter.

Airbnb rejects the purported factual description and the legal argumentation therein in full. For completeness, Airbnb notes that the decision of 9 March 2020 the letter refers to concerns a single case with a specific set of circumstances related to a single consumer. As you know, that decision has no precedential value. Airbnb moreover disagrees with this judgment and expects that several factual and legal matters referred to therein will be considered in-depth by (a) higher court(s) relatively imminently.

Under these circumstances, the consultations suggested in your letter are unwarranted and in any event premature. Airbnb suggests that an efficient use of resources by both parties militates in favour of awaiting the outcome of said further judicial review before arriving at a stage of contemplating possible merits of mutual engagement in whichever form.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]
